Her Ladyship/Sir,

Sub : Election Duty -Regarding.

*****

Please refer the subject. It is learnt that a communication requesting data on officers for performing Election Duty in the forth coming general elections to the state assembly has been received. It is humbly submitted that the State Government does not send its Gazetted officials for performing duty inside polling booths. Officers below the rank of Tehsildar in revenue department and similarly placed ranks alone are sent to perform such duties. Gazetted officers are either deputed as Micro Observers or as Assistant Returning officers. The list that is being sent from our Department is always silent about the hierarchical placement and Superintendents end up as polling officers applying either indelible ink or reading out the addresses of the electors inside a particular booth. The Presiding Officer of the booth on many an occasion is a lowly placed official from other departments. It is requested that instructions be issued that the names of Superintendents may please be not sent to avoid such humiliation. It is also stated that we have never fought shy of doing our national duty and have done our bit.

Yours faithfully

[R.CHANDRAMOULI]
GENERAL SECRETARY
